2022 NYC Benefit: Celebrating longtime supporters

Our New York City Benefit took place last October 20 and it was a great success! The event was held in the honor of two outstanding allies to POTS: Fordham University, for its continued partnership with POTS and the people we serve, and Francis J. Conroy (down), for his leadership and dedication to the Bronx community. Fr. John J. Cecero, S.J. (left), accepted the award on behalf of the University.

Every year, the NYC Benefit is an opportunity to share with our Manhattan neighbors and to introduce our work to new supporters. More than 150 attendants joined us at Bryant Park Grill to enjoy good food and to learn more about our impact in the community of The Bronx.

All the proceeds of the event will directly benefit our mission to serve our clients. If you were unable to join us for the event, you can learn about upcoming events by checking our website and social media!

How accessible are public benefits?

On Thursday, November 10th (8:30 a.m.) POTS will host its annual Breakfast Forum to discuss obstacles and solutions to accessibility.
